All food vendors must be in enclosed trailers or tents per the Local South Carolina DHEC officials; vendors are not allowed to operate on SC public right of ways with open grills unless in an enclosed compliant mobile unit or tent structure. All food vendors will be subject to DHEC inspection and rules.

All vendors are required to complete set up by 5pm on Friday, April 5th or 8am on Saturday, April 6th. No refunds will be issued after payment is received (including those due to weather). Applying or being a vendor in the past does not ensure acceptance. The committee reserves the right to turn down any application for any reason.

Specific locations will be emailed 1 week prior to the festival. You must arrive on time, and no refunds will be issued to vendors that are late. There is also no rainy-day plan for the festival. Please keep this in mind when applying and before sending in your money. This is firm and non-negotiable. We apologize for any inconvenience.

Submitting the application is an agreement to the following:

I hereby agree to indemnify and hold harmless the Lamar Egg Scramble Jamboree, the City of Lamar, the County of Darlington, and any other entity involved in the production and staging of the Festival for any injuries, loss, or for damage to individuals or property resulting from my selling products, or as a result of my/our participation in the Festival. In addition, I / we agree to abide by the Festival regulations stated herein, or risk being removed by the police.

If you are not contacted by the registration deadline, please contact the festival at 843-905-8819 to check on the status of your application. Allow for a 48 hour turnaround time for calls to be returned. Payments can only be made via mail with a check or money order.

Email or mail your application with the payment to:

All food vendor spaces are approximately 10' x 30'.

If you will be using more than the 30' width we have allotted, you will need to pay for a double spot. Keep in mind that each spot only receives 1 outlet, and we will not sell any additional outlets.
